

- Can I return items after hours?

Unless it is otherwise stated on the cover, items may be placed in the book return located in mail slot located in the door as you walk in the first door of the building. If you use the book drop, be sure to return your items before we close on the day they are due. Items otherwise marked as too fragile or too large for the book return must be returned when the Library is open.